Apostle joshua selman biography pdf

Apostle Joshua Salman Nimak is a well-known teacher of the discovery of the Word of God, and the founder of the state of Kaduna Coyonia (International Eternity Network). This is the full biography of the apostle Joshua Salman. Please read through...! The early life of envoy Joshua Salman and envoy Joshua Salman comes from Jos, a Highlands state in Nigeria but grew up in Nassel Zaria, Kaduna state. The supernatural expression of the power of the gods in his life suggests that he received an early call to serve God. He was born as a child, during a Sunday school reunion. In his high school days, God brought a mentor in his way who helped him formulate a quiet timetable and also taught him the basics of Christian character. It really helped because he had complex problems and also the challenge of how to reconcile his dreams with everything he saw around him. Therefore, he was open to the motivation he needed as he really loved God. He then began to pursue God truly and truly from his heart. As a teenager, his unwavering love for God even at the time caught the attention of many, long ago who had a penchant for spiritual things. Growing up the messenger is always alone reading and studying the Bible diligently while his colleagues played. It helped prepare it and design it for the task at hand. Shortly thereafter he received the baptism of the Holy Spirit after the Man of God was invited to the Minister and thus began his journey to the supernatural kingdom. He and four other members began to make the exception at their school by applying their faith. Among other miracles, it spawned the healing of stuttering. Along the way, some of the things he came in were called heretics. Read now: Top 10 things to know about Koinonia – Eternity Network International (ENI) It made himself and his friends back off but it was changed by the encounter he got on December 2nd, 2002 where someone patted him on the hand while he was asleep and while he was asleep, he knew it was Jesus even though he couldn't explain how he knew. It was his first encounter with Jesus. He then began to cry in abundance as he re-fixed himself for master use. Documentation holds that he had a dream in which he was a minister at university and also began encountering heavenly personalities and prominent messengers of God. So, it's only right to say that the boy already had no idea what was waiting for him before he walked on his feet at university. Not much was recorded about his elementary and secondary schools respectively, but he had the education he tripled at Ahmedo Bello University, Zaria, Kaduna State, Nigeria where he studied chemical engineering and also had the opportunity to begin his work as Lord of God as a preacher bachelor's degree and sharing the gospel to other students at the school with the help of his friends. Apostle Joshua Salman Office (How KOINONIA Started) Courier: Joshua Salman's Office Started He was on campus – Ahmedo Bello University, Zaria. While at university, his hunger for God grew. He would often go to the dam to pray and ask God to reveal to him his purpose in his life. One night, he had a vaccine where he was standing in front of a tower that looked like one of the university hostels, all of a sudden, he saw a sea of people who had no end. Everyone was crying and sobbing and saying there was no food and water. He immediately felt tremendous compassion for them. In the vision, it became like he had the key to their solutions and they confirmed that he was the reason they were where they were. He then told them he had come to fix it soon after he woke up. That's when he knew God called him to be a preacher and a priest. His most dramatic encounter was when Jesus Christ himself appeared and stood before him. All God did was stretch his hand towards him and a big beam of light came upon him. Download now: All the Salman messenger songs, hymns and tongues of fire this encounter brought a level of ointment and understanding into his life as he began to have an extraordinary insight into the word like never before. Together with his friends, the apostle Joshua Salman exercised the privilege they received to share with their fellow students the love of Jesus Christ. They continued this trend and preached every program they were allowed. History has it that the erring man of God was heavily used during his university days in Nebol, curing the sick and performing miracles.
